CURRENT ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Professor (Tenured) of Philosophy
Shackouls Honors College Faculty
Mississippi State University

Scientist-Educator
Department of Advanced Biomedical Education
University of Mississippi Medical Center

EDUCATION

B.A. University of California, Los Angeles, June 1983
M.A., Ph.D. University of California, Irvine, June 1989 Field: Philosophy;
Scientific Concentration: Neurobiology. Doctoral Dissertation: Toward a Scientific Reformulation of the Mind-Body Problem

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Philosophy of Neuroscience, Philosophy of Science (especially Scientific Reductionism),
Cellular and Molecular Mechanisms of Cognition and Consciousness

AREAS OF COMPETENCE

History of Neuroscience; Libertarian Political Philosophy

PROFESSIONAL PUBLICATIONS (106)

BOOKS (4)

2014

Engineering the Next Revolution in Neuroscience. (Co-authors: Alcino J. Silva and Anthony Landreth). Oxford University Press, 2014.

2006

Understanding Scientific Reasoning, 5th Ed. (co-authors Ronald Giere and Robert Mauldin). Thomson Publishing, 2006.

2003

Philosophy and Neuroscience: A Ruthlessly Reductive Approach. Dordrecht: Kluwer (now Springer) Academic Publishers, 2003.

1998

Psychoneural Reduction: The New Wave. Cambridge, MA: MIT Press/Bradford Books, 1998.

2021

The Tools of Neuroscience Experiment: Philosophical and Scientific Perspectives (co-editors Carl F. Craver and Ann-Sophie Barwich) Oxfordshire, UK: Routledge

2009 (Paperback Ed. 2012)

Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Neuroscience. New York: Oxford University Press, 2009. Paperback edition 2012.

JOURNAL ARTICLES, BOOK CHAPTERS, REVIEWS, AND RELATED, IN PRINT AND FORTHCOMING (100)

What kind of a scientific revolution was the discovery of mammalian adult neurogenesis?" Synthese, published online July 24, 2025, <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11229-025-05138-9>

"How can a "philosopher's toolkit" contribute to progress in neuroscience? Let's ask some neuroscientists" (Bickle lead author, co-authors Patricia Churchland, Stuart Firestein, Michael Lehman, David Parker, Alcino J. Silva, Bradley J. Walters and Robert Williams), forthcoming in European Journal of Neuroscience, 2025; 61:e70074 1 of 20 <https://doi.org/10.1111/ejn.70074>

"Revolutions in "wet" neuroscience" (co-author David Parker). In Gregory Boyle (Ed.), The SAGE Handbook of Cognitive and Systems Neuroscience, SAGE Publishing, London, pp. 495-510

2023

"Hodgkin's and Huxley's own assessments of their "quantitative description" of nerve membrane current." History and Philosophy of the Life Sciences 45, 25 (2023). <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40656-023-00582-7>.

“Neuroepigenetics in philosophical focus: A critical analysis of the philosophy of mechanism” (co-author Antonella Tramacere). Biological Theory
<https://doi.org/10.1007/s13752-023-00435-3>

“When should researchers cite study differences in response to a failure to replicate? (co-authors David Colaço [first author] and Bradley Walters). In press in Biology & Philosophy, preprint available, DOI 10.1007/s10539-022-09873-y

“New research tools suggest a “levels-less” image of the behaving organism and a dissolution of the reduction versus anti-reduction dispute” (Bickle first author, co-authors André F. de Sousa and Alcino J. Silva). Frontiers in Psychology, Research Topic: Evidence for Reductionist or Anti-Reductionist Approaches to Mental Processes. Available open access at:
http://journal.frontiersin.org/article/10.3389/fpsyg.2022.990316/full?&utm_source=Email_to_authors&utm_medium=Email&utm_content=T1_11.5e1_author&utm_campaign=Email_publication&field=&journalName=Frontiers_in_Psychology&id=990316

“Metascience, not metaphysics, of science.” part of an Author-Meets-Critics series on Gualtiero Piccinini’s Neurocognitive Mechanisms, Oxford University Press, 2020, in Journal of Consciousness Studies 29 (7-8), 175-184.

“When two (levels of) explanations collide.” In From Electrons to Elephants and Elections: Saga of Content and Context, Shyam Wuppuluri and Ian Stewart (Eds.), The Frontiers Collection, Springer, 653-672.

“Molecularizing the mind: An introduction to molecular and cellular cognition” (co-author Ann Sophie Barwich). In B.D. Young and C. Dicey-Jennings (eds.), Mind, Cognition, and Neuroscience: A Philosophical Introduction. New York: Routledge, 32-50.

“Tinkering in the lab.” In John Bickle, Carl F. Craver and Ann-Sophie Barwich (eds.), The Tools of Neuroscience Experiment: Philosophical and Scientific Perspectives (Oxfordshire, UK: Routledge).

“Editor’s Introduction.” In J. Bickle, C.F. Craver and A.-S. Barwich (eds.), The Tools of Neuroscience Research: Philosophical and Scientific Perspectives (Oxfordshire, U.K.: Routledge), 1-9.

“Don’t throw away the tin-foil hats just yet: A libertarian defense of promulgating unwarranted conspiracy theories,” (Co-author Marica Bernstein.) In Huemer, M., Borland, T., and Hillman, T.A. (eds.), Dissident Philosophers: Voices Against the Political Current of the Academy. New York: Rowman and Littlefield, 51-64.

“The first two decades of CREB-memory research: Data for philosophy of neuroscience,” in AIMS Neuroscience 8(3): 322-339, published open access at <https://www.aimspress.com/article/doi/10.3934/Neuroscience.2021017>

“Laser lights and designer drugs: New techniques for descending levels of mechanisms “in a single bound”?” Topics in Cognitive Sciences (TopiCS) 12/4: 1241-1256. Online first: DOI: 10.1111/tops.12452

"Multiple realizability" (fully revised and updated, last previous revision/update March 2013) In E. Zalta (ed.), Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy, <http://plato.stanford.edu/entries/multiple-realizability/>.

“Philosophy of neuroscience” (co-authored with Gualtiero Piccinini). In Oxford Bibliographies in Philosophy, D. Prichard (Ed.), New York: Oxford University Press, forthcoming.

Presented with Marica Bernstein in oral and poster form at Tucson III: Toward a Science of Consciousness 1998, April 27-May 2, 1998, Tucson, AZ.

"Structuralist Models of Intertheoretic Reduction: Lessons for Anglo-American Philosophers of Science." Presented as part of an invited symposium on "The Structuralist Program in Philosophy of Science" at Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology Annual Meeting, April 8-10, 1998, New Orleans, LA.

Participant on an invited symposium on "Explanatory Pluralism in Biology" at a joint meeting of the North Carolina Philosophical Society/South Carolina Society for Philosophy, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC, February 20-21, 1998

"Modeling stimulus-driven selective visual attention using thalamocortical and intrathalamic cell properties and connectivities" and "Modeling a 'voluntary' selective visual attention mechanism using parieto-frontal cell properties and connectivities." Posters presented with Marica Bernstein at Society for Neuroscience 1997 Annual Meeting, New Orleans, LA, October 25-30, 1997

"Neurobiology and Maternal Love: Grounding Ethical Considerations on Real Science" (with Marica Bernstein) and participant in a symposium on Mind, Emotion, and Self-Organizing Processes, Intermountain Philosophy Conference, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, TN, October 10-11.

"Modeling stimulus-driven selective visual attention using thalamocortical and intrathalamic cell properties and connectivities" (with Marica Bernstein, Greg Boyd, and Cindy Worley) and "Modeling a 'voluntary' selective visual attention mechanism using parieto-frontal cell properties and connectivities" (with Marica Bernstein). Posters presented at the North Carolina Society for Neuroscience 1997 Spring Meeting, Duke University Medical School, Durham, NC, May 20, 1997

"Modeling visual selective attention in a parallel network using thalamocortical and intrathalamic connectivities: The FRPCN basic model." "Modeling visual selective attention in a parallel network: The moving fovea." "Modeling visual selective attention in a parallel network: Higher order processes and "voluntary" attention" (with Marica Bernstein and Greg Boyd). Presented on a special session of the Psychology program on Computational Neuroscience at the Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Atlanta, GA, March 27-29, 1997

"Modeling visual selective attention in a parallel network using thalamocortical and parieto frontal connectivities: The FRPCN models." University of Piraeus Conference on Neurobiology and Neural Networks, Department of Informatics, Piraeus, Greece, March 21, 1997.

"Selective Attention and Computational Neuroscience." Paper to be presented as part of an invited session on Consciousness and the Brain. Intermountain Philosophy Conference, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, NC, October 18-19, 1996.

Invited Philosophy Discussant for Psychology Program Keynote Address by John Anderson, "A Simple Theory of Complex Behavior," Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Nashville, TN, April 4-6, 1996.

"Mental-Physical Property Nonidentity Conjoined with Token Physicalism is Incoherent," as part of an invited symposium on The Requirements of (Psycho-)Physicalism with John Post and Valerie Hardcastle at Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Nashville, TN, April 4-6, 1996.

"Mental-Physical Property Nonidentity Conjoined with Token Physicalism is Incoherent," North Carolina Philosophical Society, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, NC, February 23-24, 1996.

Invited Commentator on Joseph Cruz, "Connectionists Don't Have to Pretend that They Can't," Society for Philosophy and Psychology, State University of New York at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, NY, June 8-11, 1995.

Invited Philosophy Discussant, Psychology Program Keynote Address by Karl Pribram, "Brain and the Varieties of Conscious Experience," Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Virginia Beach, VA, April 13-15, 1995.

Invited Commentator on Teed Rockwell, "Can Reductionism be Eliminated?" American Philosophical Association Pacific Division Meeting, San Francisco, CA, March 31-April 2, 1995.

"Why Reduction? And Why a New Wave Version?" North Carolina Philosophical

Society, St. Andrews University, Laurinburg, NC, March 3-4, 1995.

"Connectionism, Reduction, and Multiple Realizability," Central States Philosophy Association, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN, October 28-30, 1994.

"Connectionism, Reduction, and Multiple Realizability," Intermountain Philosophy Conference, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, NC, September 23-24, 1994.

"New Wave Reductionism, Special Sciences, and the Methodological Caveats," Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Memphis, TN, June 1-4, 1994.

"Psychoneural Reduction of the Genuinely Cognitive: Some Accomplished Facts," Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Atlanta, GA, March 31-April 2, 1994.

"Connectionism, Reduction, and Multiple Realizability," Mid-South Philosophy Conference, Memphis State University, Memphis, TN, February 25-26, 1994.

"Wilfrid Sellars' 'Unknown' Argument for Scientific Realism," Intermountain Philosophy Conference, Appalachian State University, Boone, NC, November 19-20, 1993.

"Cognitivism Qua Scientific Revolution: Lessons for Anti-Reductionists," Society for Philosophy and Psychology, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, British Columbia, June 2-5, 1993.

"In Further Defense of New Wave Reductionism: The Methodological Caveats," Intermountain Philosophy Conference, Appalachian State University, Boone, NC, April 24-25, 1993.

"In Further Defense of New Wave Reductionism: The Methodological Caveats," Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, New Orleans, LA, April 8-10, 1993.

"In Further Defense of New Wave Reductionism: The Methodological Caveats," Mid-South Philosophy Conference, Memphis State University, Memphis, TN, February 26-27, 1993

"Connectionism, Eliminativism, and the Semantic View of Theories," Alabama Philosophical Society, Gulfport, AL, November 13-14, 1992.

"Revisionary Physicalism," as part of an invited symposium on The Current Status of Folk Psychology with Terence Horgan and William Ramsey, Mid-South Philosophy Conference, Memphis State University, Memphis, TN, March 1-2, 1991.

"Wilfrid Sellars' 'Unknown' Argument for Scientific Realism," Mississippi Philosophy

Association, Millsaps College, Jackson, MS, April 4, 1990.

"Dismantling the Davidsonian Objection to Neurophilosophy," Mid-South Philosophy Conference, Memphis State University, Memphis, TN, March 2-3, 1990.

PRESENTATIONS, COLLOQUIA (126)

"What if we treat consciousness like any other phenomenon for laboratory neuroscience?" Neuroscience and Pseudo-Neuroscience: Testing our Theories of Consciousness, Universidad Alberto Hurtado, Santiago, Chile, November 27, 2024

"The 60-year history of the discovery of NMDARs reveals unnoticed features of—and the value of pursuing (and funding) exploratory experimentation in (neuro-)science" Seminar series, Department of Anatomical Sciences and Neurobiology, and Neuroscience Institute, University of Tennessee Health Sciences Center, Memphis, TN, January 30, 2024

"Neuroepigenetics: Neither mechanismTM nor pathwaysTM, but a smidgen of both." Explanation and Complexity in Biology and Psychology, Themes from the work of Robert C. Richardson, 57th Annual Cincinnati Philosophy Colloquium, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, OH, September 21-22, 2023

"“Outsiders” in science’s progress,” Cleveland State University Philosophy Department Visiting Speaker, Cleveland, OH, September 19, 2023

"“Outsiders” in science’s progress,” University of Toledo Philosophy Department Visiting Speaker, Toledo, OH, September 18, 2023

"Unnoticed features of exploratory experiments in the 60-year history of the discovery of n-methyl-D-aspartate receptors," Invited Annual Lecture Series, Rotman Center of Philosophy, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, Canada, September 15, 2023.

"It is engineering that counts," ACCESS talk, Mississippi State University Cognitive Science Program, Department of Psychology, February 3, 2023

"Heterodox scientists: Hope for our conformist times?" Annual Lecture Series, Center for Philosophy of Science, University of Pittsburgh, October 21, 2022.

"Tinkering in the lab." Invited Ziegler Lecture, St. Xavier’s University, Chicago, IL, February 25, 2022

"Identity experiments in neurobiology: The discovery of the N-methyl-D-aspartate receptor." Ole Miss Philosophy Forum, Department of Philosophy and Religion, University of Mississippi, October 1, 2021
